Meditation of the Week: Psalm 91:1-16

Text: Isaiah 6:1-12

Sermon Title: Judgment of the unavoidable great tribulation due to the Jews, Gentile nations, and churches that have turned away from God and apostated

In the last days, seeing the tragic reality in which justice and the rule of law cannot be found as well as truth due to the tremendous injustice and corruption that is taking place in Israel and all other nations, now it is the reality that no one can correct like a completely tilted playground. Looking at them, some people sigh but remain silent and see the reality that the time has come when they have no idea what wretched things are going to happen in front of them.

When we look at Korea where we were born, as well as the United States, the cry of the people who warn while watching the whole country becoming a dictatorship and communism as if a ship is sinking in the midst of total corruption in all fields of politics, economy, society, media and culture, but their voice sounds like an empty one. It is no longer possible to deny the reality that can only be regarded as nothing is possible to be corrected.

The words of Isaiah chapter 6 given to us today are that when the people of Judah reached a time when they could not escape God's judgment, God, the King, the LORD of hosts told the prophet Isaiah who appeared with the seraphims to Isaiah in the temple. God ordered him a the final judgment notice against the people of Judah:

"And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. 10Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed." (Isa 6:9-10)

"Lord, how long?" Asking Isaiah, God told him that he had decided to set up Babylon in the north in dvnace to judge their sins against God and to use them as an instrument of judgment:

"Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land." (Isaiah 6:11-12).

When God spoke to prophet Jeremiah, he prophesied that the kingdom of Judah would literally be completely lost of justice and truth, in the state of unforgivable destruction by Babylon :

"Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

2And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely. 3O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return." (Jeremiah 5:1-3).

The people of the city of Judah were now in an irreversible state. God spoke through Jeremiah about their sins:

" Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. 12Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

” (Jeremiah 23:9-14).

Since then, history proves that the Israelites were enslaved under the judgment of God by the Medes, Persians, and Greeks and Romans, and the time of the Gentiles began when they were destroyed by Babylon.

When Jesus saw the wickedness of the Jews rejecting him, accepting. Jesus foretold that when the time is fulfilled and the Antichrist would appear, they shall receive him and suffer great troubles in the Great Tribulation:

" I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." (John 5:43).

Jesus spoke of the great tribulation for them to pass through, and the times of the Gentiles:

"20And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." (Luke 21:20-24).

The great tribulation that will occur in the future is that, first of all, because of the sin of apostate Israel for not accepting Jesus Christ who appeared on this earth to give them a last chance but killed him, they shall receive Antichrist and enter the great tribulation. Through the Antichrist and Babylon the Great (Revelation 17 and 18), the sins of rebellion against the Lord God and Jesus Christ who appeared in the flesh, whom he spoke many times through the prophets in the Old Testament times, shall be paid harshly. .

Not only the Jews, but all the Gentile nations who do not believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and the so called themselves as churches of God that do not practice justice and seek the truth like the Israelites and deny the only Savior Jesus Christ but rather united with WCC, WEA, NCK shall enter the Great Tribulation to be suffered under the Antichrist and the Great Babylon (Rev. 17,18) after the church as a chaste bride is translated to heaven.

In the places called as the Church of God in Korea and the United States, Christians who profess with mouth, "The Lord lives." in their worship service but actually ritual practice, but they are just like the people of Judah as testified by prophet Jeremiah, they are filled with adulterers; their hearts are dried up as the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up; and their deeds are evil without honesty. As the old prophets and the priests were profane, almost pastors and church members are profane as well. Unfortunately our God the Father are watching the wickedness in his house. Apostle James testified of them:

"From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? 2Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. 3Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. 5Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? 6But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. 7Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? 13Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." (James 4:1-10).

Now, all the peoples of the world, including Korea and the United States, are under a huge conspiracy by the New World Order forces, who have been trying to unite the whole world for a long time under the Antichrist using the Principalities and Powers and the rulers of the darkness of this world, and the evil spirits in high places. We are living in the times and the seasons when the Great Reset, which seeks to enslave mankind by so-called elites in the world, has been almost completely done. There is no hope anymore in this world, and these dark forces have already taken over all fields of politics, economy, media and culture of all countries by these forces. Even if a small group of people raise their voices and cry for justice, these deep states are laughing and mocking behind the scenes and are fulfilling their agenda one by one.

Just looking at the current situation in the United States and Korea we can tell so clearly that it is creepy. The time has come when justice and truth cannot be found even if one searches for the truth to such an extent that they do not even blink an eye while openly denying rigged elections.

Therefore, the only hope we must seek is the appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ:

"Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. 15These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

" (Titus 2:13).

Amen! Hallelujah!
