Meditation of the Week: Psalm 91:1-6

Text: Song of Solomon

Word Title: The Season of Rapture revealed in the Song of Solomon

The times and the seasons of the rapture are revealed in several places in the Bible. The most representative words prophecy of the Rapture were spoken by the Apostle Paul in the Holy Ghost:

“Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, 2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;” (2 Thessalonians 2:1-3)

Today, we already know that the apostasy has already been done by the churches of God entering into a deep apostasy joining with the WCC, WEA, and NCC by uniting with all other religions that serve other gods apart from the Lord Jesus Christ, the only Redeemer, The New World Order forces have already taken over the world, so it's only a matter of time before the Antichrist shall make his appearance.

In this way, the day of Christ that the Apostle Paul had already testified of, the times and the seasons of the rapture, have already been revealed. But the Holy Ghost, through the song of Solomon, reveals in which season of the year the day of Christ will come to pass:

"The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. 9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice. 10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. 11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; 12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; 13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away." (Sol 2:8-13)

The Bible says, there is the windows in heaven. The sky we see looks like space, but the heaven that God created, that is, the firmament (Genesis 1:6), is not space, but material, and has the meaning that it was made by tapping something. It is said that God will burn the heavens with fire on the Day of Judgment:

“And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.” (Isaiah 34:4).

It is said that God opened the windows of heaven when he judged the world with water in the days of Noah:

“In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. 12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. 13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark; 14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.” (Genesis 7 :11-12)

God told the people of Israel under the law that He would open the windows of heaven and bless them:

“Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.” (Mal 3:10-11)

The Bible says that many people went up to heaven through the windows of heaven. Enoch and the prophet Elijah did not see death and ascended into heaven through the heavenly window. The Apostle John also heard the voice of God saying, “Come up hither!,” and immediately ascended in spirit to the throne of heaven. The Apostle Paul testified to the Thessalonian believers that the Church of God, the bride of Christ, shall also be taken up to meet Jesus Christ who appears in the air through the windows of heaven:

“For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” (1 Thessalonians 4:16-17).

Windows in the heaven are opened and closed from time to time. The Bible tells us that the last time the windows of heaven to be opened shall be when the Lord Jesus Christ come to judge the evil world. The prophet Isaiah foretold what would happen at that time:

“Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence, 2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence! 3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. 4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.” (Isaiah 64:1-4).

The Apostle John also saw and testified in the Holy Ghost of the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, who appears opening the gates of heaven to judge the nations:

“ And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.” (Revelation 19:11-13).

Solomon looks through the window of heaven and reveals himself to his bride to depart speaking of a spring day after the winter passes by, flowers blooming on the ground, and birds sing.

The Bible speaks of three important feasts in the Bible (Leviticus 23). The Passover is a season to show the shadow that Jesus Christ will become the first-born Lamb to take away the sin of the world to become the Passover Lamb who died for the people of Israel in Egypt. The feast of tabernacle is the typology of the day of second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

However, we can understand from the Word that Pentecost is a feast that foreshadowing the rapture, Jesus Christ coming down from heaven to take the Church of God, both Jews and Gentiles, who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and have been saved:

“ And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete: 16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD. 17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.” (Leviticus 23:15-17).

This verse is about the sacrifice offered on the Day of Pentecost, and at this time, it tells us to wave two loaves of bread with leaven toward the heaven. The two loaves of leaven bread symbolize the two kinds of sinners, Jew and Gentile, and when the Holy Ghost came down on the day of Pentecost, 3,000 Jews and Gentiles were saved in that day. The Feast of Pentecost is the time of the barley harvest in the season around May to June on our calendar. It was the third month of the Jewish calendar (Ex 19:1) when Moses fasted forty days on Mount Sinai and received the Ten Commandments. We can see that the third month is around the months of May to June on our calendar. When Moses came down from the mountain, the people of Israel were playing and shouting and committing fornication while serving the golden calf. On that day, God killed 3,000 people (Ex. 32:19-28). God, who had killed 3,000 people under the Law, saved the 3,000 people unto life on the Day of Grace, the Day of Pentecost.

From the Words we may know that the season of the rapture shall be in the Feast of Pentecost. Therefore, the Bible is showing the bride of Christ like the Shulamite woman not only the times and the seasons of the rapture, but also the season of the four seasons when the rapture is to come to pass. Amen! Hallelujah!
