

10-11-2026 Sunday Sermon Message
This Week's Meditation: Psalm 91:1-16

Text: 1 John 5:1-15

Scripture Title: Faith That Conquers the World

The Apostle John testified that anyone who believes Jesus is the Christ is born of God. In other words, they are the one God Himself begotten. To understand this, we need to know whether Jesus, who is Christ, became the only begotten Son whom God Himself begotten.

The Bible says that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit in Mary's womb. Therefore, for God to personally give birth to us, He must give us the Holy Spirit.

For God to give us the Holy Spirit, there must be no sin within us. Thus, all of us were born as sinners. Because of this, God sent His only Son, Christ Jesus, who, according to the Bible, died and was buried for our sins, and rose again on the third day according to the Bible. Christ came with water and blood, and when He died on the cross, He shed water and blood.

When we believe this fact, God has sprinkled the blood of Christ on our consciences to forgive all sins and remove them. The Apostle Paul testified to this fact in his letter to the Hebrews:

"Not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood He entered the sanctuary once and accomplished eternal redemption for us. If the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of heifers are sprinkled on the unclean and sanctified by purifying their flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who offered himself blameless to God through the eternal Holy Spirit, purify your conscience from dead deeds so that you may serve the living God?" "(Hebrews 9:12-14)

The Apostle Paul testified that Jesus, who is the Christ, is the firstborn born of the Holy Spirit:

"He also predestined those whom He had foreknown to be in the image of His Son, so that He might be firstborn among many brothers. Thus He also called those He had appointed, and He also justified those He had called, and He also glorified those He had justified." (Romans 8:29-30)

Therefore, those who believe in Christ and whose sins have been removed by His blood have become brothers of Christ by receiving the Holy Spirit. Thus, they come to love all brothers born of Him.

The Apostle John testified that those born of God are those who have overcome the world by faith. To be victorious means to be those who have fought against the world and triumphed over it. Regarding the battle with the world, Paul specifically testified:

"Put on the full armor of God so that you may stand against the devil's schemes. For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against rulers, authorities, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and against the spiritual evil in the heights. Therefore, put on the full armor of God. This is so that you may resist the day of evil and stand until all things are accomplished. Therefore, stand, girdle yourself with the truth at your waist, put on the breastplates of righteousness, and prepare the gospel of peace, so that you may draw out every flaming arrow of the wicked one. Also, with the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit—the word of God—pray always in the Spirit with every prayer and supplication, and for this purpose, be vigilant with all patience and supplication for all the saints. "(Ephesians 6:11-18)

The Holy Spirit testifies that Jesus Christ came by water and blood, and that there are three who testify in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit. These three are one, and the three who testify on earth are also three: the Holy Spirit, water, and blood. These three are united in one being, as the Apostle John testified.

The Apostle John testified about the evidence found in those who believe in the Son of God:

"And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and that this life is in His Son. Whoever has the Son has life, and whoever does not have the Son of God has no life. I am writing these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God. "(1 John 5:11-13)

Also, the Apostle John testified about the boldness of those who have eternal life in Jesus, and that if we ask for anything according to His will, He hears us. That's right! When everyone prays in God's will to be saved and reach the knowledge of the truth, God hears them. Therefore, we must pray by faith for brothers and sisters who have not been saved or have not reached the knowledge of the truth

until the day the Lord appears.
Amen! Hallelujah!
