This Week's Meditation: Psalm 91:1-16

Text: Jeremiah 30:4-7

Scripture Title: Jacob's Trouble(Great Tribulation) and the Promise He Gave to the Church

After God finished all His work over the past six thousand years (six days) and before he rests on the seventh day that is seven thousand years, the final seven years of judgment for the world are approaching.

These days are days of judgment against the world that does not believe in Him, and they will truly be the saddest days in human history.

God first judged the Jews who did not believe in Him and prepared the day of Jacob's Trouble so that they would repent before God and return. The seven-year tribulation was the day for God's people Israel to repent, return to God, and receive salvation. Because of this, the prophet Jeremiah prophesied that this day would be the time of Jacob's trouble. Therefore, it is a time unrelated to the church of God, who is saved by believing in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The prophet Jeremiah spoke about how painful and sorrowful that day would be:

" Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

⁷ Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it. "(Jeremiah 30:6-7)

The prophet Hosea also prophesied that the Israelites would cry out on that day:

" I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early. Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

² After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. "(Hosea 5:15-6:2)

During Jacob's time of trouble, not only the Jews but also all Gentiles who do not believe in Jesus and unregenerate Christians will enter into God's wrath. They will enter God's judgment that humanity has never experienced before in history. All of them will suffer in a hellish place ruled by the evil Antichrist. If they do not receive the mark 666 of the beast, they will be beheaded.

Jesus told the Jews that this day was a day of wrath:

"And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

²¹ Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them

which are in the midst of it depart out;
and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

²² For these be the days of vengeance,
that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

²³ But woe unto them that are with child,
and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

²⁴ And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive
into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. "(Luke 21:20-24)

At that time, His bride Church is promised that she would not enter into wrath.

The Apostle Paul testified about this:

"Much more then, being now justified
by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." (Romans 5:9)

"And to wait for his Son from heaven,
whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. ." (1 Thessalonians 1:10)

" For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ ." (1 Thessalonians
5:9)

Therefore, God's church, saved from the coming wrath, must intercede with tears for the Jews and Gentiles who will enter God's wrath on this day, as well as

for those who have not been born again within the church and are not saved. We must boldly pray for them, believing in the promised words given through the Apostle
John:

"And this is the confidence that we
have in him, that, if we ask any thing
according to his will, he heareth us:

¹⁵ And if we know that he hear us,
whatsoever we ask, we know that we
have the petitions that we desired of
him." (1 John 5:14-15)

The Apostle Paul testified about what would happen just before God's wrath
came:

"And this is the confidence that we
have in him, that, if we ask any thing
according to his will, he heareth us:

¹⁵ And if we know that he hear us,
whatsoever we ask, we know that we
have the petitions that we desired of
him. "(1 Thessalonians 5:3-4)

Amen! Hallelujah!
